RECITALS

- A. The City has allocated funds to Borrower to support the development and rehabilitation of affordable rental housing.
- B. The Affordable Rental Development Program (“ARD”) has been established to provide such funds to eligible projects.
- C. Borrower is the holder of a leasehold interest to certain property situated at 2226 Parkview Avenue, Knoxville, Tennessee 37917, as more fully described in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by specific reference (“Property”).
- D. Borrower has applied for a Deferred Payment Loan through the City’s ARD Program to obtain City funding to develop the Property.
- E. As a participant in the City’s ARD Program, Borrower will receive loan funds to cover all or part of the cost of constructing a multi-family development on the Property, and, in consideration, Borrower consents to be regulated and restricted by the provisions of the City’s ARD Program.

In consideration of the Property and the mutual covenants contained herein, Borrower and the City agree as follows.

TERMS

Borrower and the City hereby create a restrictive covenant encumbering the Property that will meet the conditions for qualification as affordable housing as described in the Affordable Rental Development Program Agreement dated _____ (“Agreement”). More specifically, this restrictive covenant limits the use of the 10 assisted rental unit(s) in the Property to affordable rental units for low- income families for a period of 20 years commencing on the date that construction of all units in the Property is completed. In summary, the assisted units qualify as affordable housing only if they comply with all of the conditions described in the Agreement, including, without limitation, the following requirements:

- A. They bear rents not greater than the LOW HOME rents for existing housing for comparable units in the area as established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”), less an allowance for tenant-paid utilities or, if the unit receives a federal or state project-based rental subsidy and the tenant pays as a contribution not more than 30% of the family’s adjusted income, then the maximum rent (i.e., tenant contribution plus project-based rental subsidy) is the rent allowable under the federal or state project-based rental subsidy program.
- B. With the exception of a housing manager’s unit (if applicable), they are occupied only by households that qualify as low-income families, except for temporary noncompliance, as described in the Program Agreement. Where applicable, the housing manager’s unit will be occupied by a person/family qualifying under 100% of area median income as determined by HUD.
- C. They will remain affordable without regard to the term of any loan, mortgage, or transfer of ownership for not less than 20 years beginning after project completion, except that, upon foreclosure by a lender or other conveyance in lieu of foreclosure, the affordability period shall be terminated if the foreclosure or conveyance in lieu of foreclosure recognizes any contractual or legal rights of public agencies, nonprofit sponsors, or others to take actions that would avoid the termination of low-income affordability. However, the affordability restrictions will be revived according to the original terms if, during the original affordability period, the owner of record before foreclosure or conveyance in lieu of foreclosure, or any entity that includes the former owner or those with whom the former owner has or had family or business ties, obtains an ownership interest in the project or Property.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date above written.
