BACKGROUND

S.O.U.L.S. (Sounds of Unity Lifting Spirits) is a 501-(c)(3), non-profit corporation founded with the purpose of providing opportunities for culturally diverse youth up to age 18 years old to build relational bonds through music and leadership training. S.O.U.L.S. Youth Choir will be working on musical theater Broadway music this summer every Monday night from 6 pm-7:45 pm that addresses national and civic issues that affect them, such as bullying and racial discrimination. One of the musicals they will be learning about is Hairspray, which is a show that sheds light on racial discrimination in the 1960s and weight issues among teens. This music and musical theater experience will be a catalyst for thoughtful conversation to break down barriers.
