Media/Print	Centerfold two-page article in The Tennessee Baptist and Reflector Statewide Newspaper celebrating the work of Dr. Hobby and the Missions Centered Choir. This publication is in print as well as on Baptist and Reflector Facebook. This was reshared across many East TN Churches and the feedback was positive and a Baptist Church in Rogersville, TN has booked us already for a Baptist Missions Dinner in December 2025. (We posted this article on www.soulchoir.org and pushed it out on social media.)

Goals and Plans for 2025

- Strengthen the younger voices with education in proper vocal techniques
- Increase harmony singing ability across the group on Monday night rehearsals
- Increase marketing efforts through the Live Radio Interview on Praise 96.3 with host Laura Paul on 1/20/25
- Network with more worship pastors and music teachers to reach more altos, tenors, and basses.
- Continue to strengthen partnerships with Carson Newman Music Students and Faculty and seek to form an alliance with CNU's Bonner Scholars Department.
- Continue to choose music that stretches their abilities.
- Continue to allow students to be mentors and leaders to the younger students.
- Plan and Execute a Spring youth leadership team building retreat in April at Ancient Lore Village.
- Plan and Execute a Summer youth leadership and worship music retreat in July in Townsend.
- Continue the Center for English Collaboration in May 2025-July 2025.
- Continue to strengthen partnerships with Knox International Network.
- Continue to reach out to Bridge, UTK International Program Leaders, and ELL teachers in the area.
- Continue to teach praise and worship music for the Glory of God!
