Server/Bartender plan

All front-of-house employees will be required to take the TABC class and receive a valid server permit.

All employees will be required to attend a mandatory meeting the week following the owner/manger's completion of the TASK class. To ensure that all aspects of serving alcohol to our guests are followed and understood.

All front of house employees will check and ensure that the person they are serving has a valid form of ID and is over the age of 21. They will automatically not serve anyone with under 21 on their ID.

All employees will regulate and observe all patrons that they serve. They will look for signs or behavior and prevent a patron from being overserved.

In the rare instance a patron does become to intoxicated to drive, the server will provide food, water, and an alternative way for the person to get home.

In the event that a situation is getting out of hand, the server will dial 411 or 911 depending on the situation.

A copy of the server plan will be posted in an area that all front house staff will be able to see and read if they need to refer to it.
