AGENDA INFORMATION SHEET

AGENDA DATE: June 10, 2025

DEPARTMENT: Office of Community Safety and Empowerment

DIRECTOR or DESIGNEE: LaKenya Middlebrook

AGENDA SUMMARY

An Ordinance appropriating the sum of $1,500.00 from the Community Safety and Empowerment budget and donating same to YOKE in support of two Summer Adventure Camps for youth to keep young people engaged in positive activities over the summer.

COUNCIL DISTRICT(S) AFFECTED

All Districts

BACKGROUND

For nearly 50 years, YOKE has partnered with local schools to offer high-quality, accessible after-school programs — always free of charge and open to students of any or no faith background. Their singular focus on middle school students ensures a targeted, effective approach during a critical developmental window. Studies show that mentored youth experience higher graduation rates, stronger family and peer relationships, improved behavior and self-esteem, greater educational ambitions, and a reduced likelihood of risky behaviors. YOKE's programs not only impact students immediately but also equip them to lead and serve the next generation, creating a ripple effect of hope and transformation throughout entire communities.

ESTIMATED PROJECT SCHEDULE

June 5 through July 10, 2025

PRIOR ACTION/REVIEW

Approved on first reading at the 5/27/2025 meeting by a vote of 8-0.

FISCAL INFORMATION

$1,500.00 to be funded from 000100.011116.8950.0839 Office of Community Safety and Empowerment budget and administered by Office of Community Safety and Empowerment Staff.

6.) How will your event support the Empower Knox mission to Build Successful Life Outcomes for Knoxville's Youth? (150 words max)

At YOKE, we believe transformational mentoring relationships are the key to lasting change in the lives of middle school students. Whether the goal is stronger self-esteem, healthier relationships, or higher educational aspirations, research consistently points to mentoring as a universally recommended intervention. For nearly 50 years, YOKE has partnered with local schools to offer high-quality, accessible after-school programs — always free of charge and open to students of any or no faith background. Our singular focus on middle school students ensures a targeted, effective approach during a critical developmental window. Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request of August 6, 2003 regarding your organization's tax-exempt status.

In December 1979 we issued a determination letter that recognized your organization as exempt from federal income tax. Our records indicate that your organization is currently exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Based on information subsequently submitted, we classified your organization as one that is not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because it is an organization described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

This classification was based on the assumption that your organization's operations would continue as stated in the application. If your organization's sources of support, or its character, method of operations, or purposes have changed, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on the exempt status and foundation status of your organization.

Your organization is required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if its gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of the organization's annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $20 a day, up to a maximum of $10,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

All exempt organizations (unless specifically excluded) are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more paid to each employee during a calendar year. Your organization is not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, these organizations are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes.

Donors may deduct contributions to your organization as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to your organization or for its use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Yoke Youth Ministries
58-1380597

Your organization is not required to file federal income tax returns unless it is subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If your organization is subject to this tax, it must file an income tax return on the Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your organization's present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

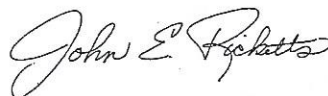

Section 6104 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to make your organization's annual return available for public inspection without charge for three years after the due date of the return. The law also requires organizations that received recognition of exemption on July 15, 1987, or later, to make available for public inspection a copy of the exemption application, any supporting documents and the exemption letter to any individual who requests such documents in person or in writing. Organizations that received recognition of exemption before July 15, 1987, and had a copy of their exemption application on July 15, 1987, are also required to make available for public inspection a copy of the exemption application, any supporting documents and the exemption letter to any individual who requests such documents in person or in writing. For additional information on disclosure requirements, please refer to Internal Revenue Bulletin 1999 - 17.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your organization's exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it with the organization's permanent records.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

This letter affirms your organization's exempt status.

Sincerely,

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
YOKE Youth Ministries
Knoxville, Tennessee

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of YOKE Youth Ministries (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2023, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of YOKE Youth Ministries as of December 31, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of YOKE Youth Ministries and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about YOKE Youth Ministries' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of YOKE Youth Ministries' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about YOKE Youth Ministries' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

YOKE YOUTH MINISTRIES
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2023

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Operations and Basis of Accounting

YOKE Youth Ministries (“YOKE”) is a not-for-profit organization committed to mentoring middle school students through after school clubs, weekend and summer camps, and social activities designed to meet the relational and spiritual needs of adolescents. YOKE conducts weekly club meetings, tutoring programs, and camp activities in Knox, Anderson, Blount, Grainger, and Jefferson Counties in East Tennessee. YOKE’s primary funding sources are donor contributions and program services fees.

Financial Statement Presentation

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. The statements are presented in accordance with the provisions of Statement of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASU 2016-14, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. Under ASU 2016-14, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions, with the goal of improving not-for-profit entity (NFP) financial statements to provide more useful information to donors, grantors, and other financial statement users. The ASU requires additional disclosures for expenses by nature and function and for the liquidity and availability of resources.

Basis of Presentation

Net assets, revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Organization and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

All contributions are considered to be available for net assets use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as net assets with donor restrictions or restricted support that increases those net asset classifications. The Organization had no restricted net assets as of December 31, 2023.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts reported in the statement of financial position for cash and cash equivalents, pledge receivables, and accrued expenses approximate fair value based on the short-term nature of these instruments.

Revenues and Other Support

Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions. The Organization reports gifts of cash and other assets as net assets with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or if they are designated as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activity as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as support without donor restrictions.

Expense Allocation

The Organization's expenses are presented on a function basis, showing basic program activities and support services. The Organization incurs costs and expenses related to its program services and supporting activities. Expenses that are directly related to, and can be assigned to, program services or a single supporting activity are charged directly to such function. Expenses that are related to more than one function are allocated between the appropriate functions. The most significant of the Organization's joint costs are the costs associated with salaries, payroll taxes, employee benefits, and rent. The Organization allocates these joint costs primarily using proportional methods based on the programs and supporting services benefited.

Income Tax Status

The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation and is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the Organization are tax deductible within the limitations prescribed by the Code. The Organization files informational returns with the IRS and with the State of Tennessee. Those returns are subject to review by taxing authorities. All returns filed prior to 2018 are closed and not subject to review.

The Organization accounts for uncertain tax positions using a two-step approach. The first step is to determine whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The second step is to measure and recognize in the financial statements the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon the ultimate settlement. The Organization had no uncertain tax positions that required significant adjustments to the financial statements as of December 31, 2023.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents and Investments

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, YOKE considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. At December 31, 2023, YOKE had investments considered to be cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments in equity securities with readily determinable market values and all debt securities are carried at fair value with realized and unrealized gains and losses included in the statement of activities. Donated investments are recorded at the fair value on the date of the contributions and thereafter carried in accordance with the above provisions.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded at the settlement date. Investment income is reported in the period earned as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions unless the use of the assets received is limited by donor-imposed restrictions.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Generally accepted accounting principles establishes a fair value hierarchy, which gives the highest priority to observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1), the next highest priority to inputs from observable data other than quoted prices (Level 2), and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). Inputs are broadly defined as assumptions market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. The investments are classified as level 1 of the fair value hierarchy as fully described in Note 4.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, except for property or equipment that is donated to YOKE which is recorded at estimated fair market value at the date received. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred, betterments are capitalized and gains and losses from disposition are included in revenues and expenses. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

Net Assets

All contributions are considered to be available for use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as net assets with donor restrictions.

YOKE reports gifts of long-lived assets as net assets without donor restrictions, unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash and other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as net assets with donor restrictions.

Contributed Goods and Services

Donated goods are recorded at fair value on the date received. YOKE recognizes donated services that create or enhances non-financial assets or that require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing various program services have been summarized on a financial basis in the statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting activities.

NOTE 2 - LIQUIDITY

YOKE consistently reviews its net assets balances with or without donor restrictions to ensure appropriate availability of assets to meet obligations as they come due. YOKE currently does not have any net assets that donor restricted. Therefore, financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the balance sheet date, comprise the following:

Net assets without donor restrictions as of December 31, 2023

Cash and Cash Equivalents	$ 158,248
---------------------------	------------

The Organization's main revenue source not subject to donor restrictions are from contributions and fundraising events. The Organization has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities and other expenditures become due.

NOTE 3 – PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consists of the following at December 31, 2023:

Land	$ 18,000
Land improvements	9,799
Buildings	177,960
Office equipment	30,448
Audio-visual equipment	4,848
Furniture and fixtures	33,274
	274,329
Less: accumulated depreciation	(255,408)
Net Property and Equipment	$ 18,921

Depreciation expense amounted to $6,290 for the year ended December 31, 2023.

NOTE 4 – INVESTMENTS

FASB ASC 820-10 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. The Organization uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, Yoke measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar assets in active markets, and Level 3 inputs were only used when Level 1 or Level 2 inputs were not available.

Level 1 Fair Value Measurement: The fair value of the endowment's mutual funds and exchange-traded funds are based on quoted net asset values of the shares held at year-end. All of the investments were Level 1 assets as of December 31, 2023.

Level 2 Fair Value Measurement: Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar assets in active markets or significant other observable inputs. There were no level 2 assets as of December 31, 2023.

Level 3 Fair Value Measurement: Level 3 inputs include investments where significant observable inputs are not available. There were no level 3 assets as of December 31, 2023.

Investments of the YOKE Youth Ministries on December 31, 2023, consisted of the following:

	Cost	Fair Value	Gain (Loss)
Mutual Funds	$46,310	$41,922	$(4,388)
Exchange Traded Funds	4,566	4,187	(379)
Money Market Funds	288	288	—
Total	$51,164	$46,397	$(4,767)

NOTE 5 – LINE OF CREDIT

On March 12, 2020, YOKE entered into a $50,000 line of credit with a local bank to provide funds for short-term operating needs. The line of credit has been renewed annually. The line of credit is collateralized by property on Cecil Avenue. Principal will be due on demand. If no demand is made, principal and interest will be due in full upon maturity as outlined in the promissory note. The line of credit has a variable interest rate and the current rate as of December 31, 2023 is 4.25%. The interest rate is subject to change when the bank's base rate changes. There was no drawdown from the line of credit during 2023 and therefore Yoke incurred no interest expense.

NOTE 6 – CONCENTRATION

During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Organization received approximately 34% of its support from six donors. If a significant reduction in these levels of support were to occur, it could have a significant impact on the Organization's operations.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2023

NOTE 7 – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK FOR CASH HELD AT BANK

The Organization's bank deposits consist of a checking and savings account. At December 31, 2023, the bank deposits did not exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits.

NOTE 8 – COMPENSATED ABSENCES

Employees of the organization are entitled to paid vacation and paid sick days off, depending on length of service and other factors. If employment is terminated before year end, employees will receive a payout of unused vacation time on a prorated basis. Any remaining vacation days at year end cannot be carried over to the following year. Employees can carry over a maximum of 60 sick days to the next calendar year. Any accrued sick days are forfeited upon termination. Due to the unpredictability of the circumstances and immaterial amount of unused employee vacation time maintained by employees, the Organization's policy has been to recognize the cost of compensated absences when actually paid.

NOTE 9 – FUNDRAISING EXPENSE

Total fundraising expense for the year ended December 31, 2023 was $46,853. Fundraising expenses were approximately 17% of the total fundraising revenue. The ratio of expenses to amounts raised is computed using actual expenses and related contributions on an accrual basis.

NOTE 10 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The date to which events occurring after December 31, 2023, the date of the most recent financial statements, have been evaluated for possible adjustments to the financial statements or disclosures is November 14, 2024, which is the date on which the financial statements were issued.
